1. Introduction

We offer customers lease agreements. This Credit Guide is designed to assist you in deciding whether to enter into a lease agreement with us, so it is important that you carefully read this guide as soon as you receive it. It provides you with an overview of our obligations and your rights in assessing the suitability of a credit contract or credit limit increase for each customer. This Credit Guide also outlines the procedure for making a complaint and how you can contact us. (For additional information about making privacy-related complaints, please also see the 'Privacy' section in the Lease Agreement Terms & Conditions and our Privacy Policy at www.bealisa.com.au).

3. Assessment of suitability for a Lease Agreement – our obligations and your rights

Under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 ("NCCP Act"), before we enter into the lease agreement, we're required to assess the suitability of the lease agreement for each customer.

To assess suitability, we'll make reasonable inquiries about:

- your requirements and objectives in relation to the lease agreement; and
- your financial situation.

It is therefore very important that the information you provide us is accurate. Even if we offer you a lease agreement, it is important that you consider whether the product will be right for you and whether you are comfortable that you will be able to meet your commitments under the lease agreement.

a) Unsuitability criteria

We can't offer a lease agreement to a customer if:

- it is likely that the customer will be unable to meet their financial obligations under the lease agreement or could only meet them with substantial hardship; or
- the lease agreement doesn't meet the customer's requirements or objectives.

b) Requesting a copy of our assessment notice

Before entering into the lease agreement or at any time during the first 7 years of the lease agreement, you can request a written copy of our assessment. There is no fee for requesting a copy of our assessment.

If you request a copy of the assessment before we enter into the lease agreement, we'll provide you with a copy of the assessment.

If you ask to see our assessment within the first 2 years of the lease agreement, we'll provide you with a written copy of our assessment within 7 business days after we receive your request.

If you ask to see our assessment 2-7 years after the start date of the lease agreement, we'll provide you with a written copy of our assessment within twenty one (21) business days after we receive your request.

We don't have to provide the assessment if you don't enter into the lease agreement.

4. Resolving disputes

We genuinely want to hear from our customers. We want to keep our lines of communication open and hear your suggestions for improvement. If you have something on your mind regarding our lease products or services, share it with us. We welcome the opportunity to resolve the situation.

Our staff are here to help you so if you have a concern or complaint, please talk to our staff at our Customer Contact Centre, 7 days a week, on 1800 225 472.

If our Customer Contact Centre team has not resolved your concern or complaint, please contact our internal dispute resolution scheme (managed by the Customer Relations Team). You can contact the team via:

Email at CustomerRelations.Complaints@flexigroup.com.au

- Telephone at 1300 858 608 between 9:00am - 5:00pm (EST) weekdays; or
- Fax at (02) 8905 1821.

A Customer Relations Team member will review your complaint and the resolutions offered and will endeavour to discuss the complaint with you within 2 business days of your complaint being lodged. However, sometimes we are unable to do this because there are complicated circumstances to investigate, which may include speaking with other parties. In these cases, the process can take longer.

If you are unhappy with the resolution of your complaint by our Customer Relations Team, you can lodge a complaint with the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). AFCA provides fair and independent financial services complaint resolution that is free to consumers. They can be contacted online at www.afca.org.au; via email at info@afca.org.au; via telephone at 1800 931 678 (free call) or in writing to: Australian Financial Complaints Authority, GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001.

This is a free service established to provide you with an independent mechanism to resolve specific complaints.

You can also contact ASIC, the regulator, for information on 1300 300 630 or through ASIC's website at www.asic.gov.au.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT APPLIES IF YOU ARE AN INDIVIDUAL OR STRATA CORPORATION AND, AT THE DATE OF SIGNING THE LEASE AGREEMENT, YOU INTEND TO USE THE GOODS WHOLLY OR PREDOMINANTLY FOR PERSONAL, DOMESTIC OR HOUSEHOLD PURPOSES. IT DOESN'T APPLY TO CUSTOMERS WHO ARE USING THE GOODS PREDOMINANTLY FOR BUSINESS PURPOSES. Information statement

Subsection 175 (1) of the National Credit Code regulation 105 of the National Consumer Credit Protection Regulations 2010

Things you should know about your consumer lease

This statement tells you about some of the rights and obligations of yourself and your lessor. It does not state the terms and conditions of your lease.

The lease

1. How can I get details of my lease?

Your lessor must give you a copy of your consumer lease with this statement. Both documents must be given to you within 14 days after the lessor enters into the consumer lease, unless you already have a copy of the consumer lease.

If you want another copy of your lease write to your lessor and ask for one. Your lessor may charge you a fee. Your lessor has to give you a copy —

- within 14 days of your written request if the contract came into existence 1 year or less before your request; or
- otherwise within 30 days.

2. What should my lease tell me?

You should read your lease carefully.

Your lease should tell you about your obligations, and include information on matters such as —

- details of the goods which have been hired; and
- any amount you have to pay before the goods are delivered; and
- stamp duty and other government charges you have to pay; and
- charges you have to pay which are not included in the rental payments; and
- the amount of each rental payment; and
- the date on which the first rental payment is due and either the dates of the other rental payments or the interval between them; and
- the number of rental payments; and
- the total amount of rent; and
- when you can end your lease; and
- what your obligations are (if any) when your lease ends.

This information only has to be included in your lease if it is possible to give it at the relevant times.

If your lease does not tell you all these details, contact your credit provider's external dispute resolution scheme, or get legal advice, for example from a community legal centre or Legal Aid, as you may have rights against your lessor.

3. Can I end my lease early?

Yes. Simply return the goods to your lessor. The goods may be returned in ordinary business hours or at any other time you and the lessor agree on or the court decides.

4. What will I have to pay if I end my lease early?

The amount the lease says you have to pay.

If you have made rental payments in advance then it is possible that your lessor might owe you money if you return the goods early.

5. Can my lease be changed by my lessor?

Yes, but only if your lease says so.

6. Is there anything I can do if I think that my lease is unjust?

Yes. You should talk to your lessor. Discuss the matter and see if you can come to some arrangement.

If that is not successful, you may contact your credit provider's external dispute resolution scheme.

EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION IS A FREE SERVICE ESTABLISHED TO PROVIDE YOU WITH AN INDEPENDENT MECHANISM TO RESOLVE SPECIFIC COMPLAINTS. YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER'S EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROVIDER IS THE AUSTRALIAN FINANCIAL COMPLAINTS AUTHORITY AND CAN BE CONTACTED AT:

TELEPHONE: 1800 931 678 (FREE CALL)

ONLINE: WWW.AFCA.ORG.AU

EMAIL: INFO@AFCA.ORG.AU

POSTAL ADDRESS: GPO BOX 3, MELBOURNE VIC 3001.

Alternatively, you can go to court. You may also wish to get legal advice, for example from a community legal centre or Legal Aid, and/or make a complaint to ASIC. ASIC can be contacted on 1300 300 630 or through ASIC's website at <http://www.asic.gov.au>.

The goods

7. If my lessor writes asking me where the goods are, do I have to say where they are?

Yes. You have 7 days after receiving your lessor's request to tell your lessor. If you do not have the goods you must give your lessor all the information you have so they can be traced.

8. When can my lessor or its agent come into a residence to take possession of the goods?

Your lessor can only do so if it has the court's approval or the written consent of the occupier which is given after the occupier is informed in writing of the relevant section in the National Credit Code.

General

9. What do I do if I can not make a rental payment?

Get in touch with your lessor immediately. Discuss the matter and see if you can come to some arrangement.

You can ask your lessor to change your lease in a number of ways —

- to extend the term of your lease and reduce rental payments; or
- to extend the term of your lease and delay rental payments for a set time; or
- to delay rental payments for a set time.

10. What if my lessor and I can not agree on a suitable arrangement?

If the lessor refuses your request to change the rental payments, you can ask your lessor to review this decision if you think it is wrong.

If the lessor still refuses your request, you can complain to the external dispute resolution scheme that your lessor belongs to. Further details about this scheme are set out below in question 12.

11. Can my lessor take action against me?

Yes, if you are in default under your lease. But the law says that you can not be unduly harassed or threatened for rental payments. If you think you are being unduly harassed or threatened, contact your credit provider's external dispute resolution scheme or ASIC, or get legal advice.

12. Do I have any other rights and obligations?

Yes. The law will give you other rights and obligations. You should also READ YOUR LEASE carefully.

IF YOU HAVE ANY DOUBTS, OR WANT MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER. YOU MUST ATTEMPT TO RESOLVE YOUR COMPLAINT WITH YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER BEFORE CONTACTING YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER'S EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION SCHEME. IF YOU HAVE A COMPLAINT WHICH REMAINS UNRESOLVED AFTER SPEAKING TO YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER YOU CAN CONTACT YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER'S EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION SCHEME OR GET LEGAL ADVICE.

PLEASE KEEP THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT. YOU MAY WANT SOME INFORMATION FROM IT AT A LATER DATE.

Questions and Answers

Common questions & answers with us

Every day, more and more Australians use us to keep up-to-date with the very latest technology for their homes and offices. We are delighted to welcome you as one of them.

This document contains important information about your lease agreement (“agreement”) that you will find useful both now and in the future. Please take a few moments to read it and for future reference be sure to retain in a secure place along with the agreement.

Unless otherwise defined or the context requires otherwise, capitalised terms used in these Questions & Answers have the meanings given to them in the agreement. Reference to clauses in these Questions & Answers are references to clauses in the agreement.

1. Who’s Lisa?

Actually, it’s more like What is Lisa? Lisa is the lease product provided by us. Effectively, it allows you to take advantage of the latest goods for work, study and/or your lifestyle, and stay up to date with new product releases. Since you’ll be leasing, rather than buying goods, Lisa can provide you with a great way of always having the latest and greatest without the huge outlays that buying requires.

2. Who is responsible if the Goods break?

The Goods come with certain guarantees under Australian Consumer Law (ACL), including that they will be of acceptable quality (Consumer Guarantees). The Consumer Guarantees cannot be limited or excluded. You are not required to pay for your ACL rights and remedies. We also have responsibility for accidental damage as set out in paragraph 4. The rights under FlexiCare are additional to your rights and remedies under the ACL. In either of these circumstances you can call us to see if you are entitled to a remedy (e.g. repair or replacement of the goods). The Goods may also come with a manufacturer’s warranty in addition to your rights under Australian Consumer Law or you may be able to claim under your own insurance or an extended warranty or customer care plan (if applicable). Otherwise, you are responsible for maintaining the Goods.

3. FlexiCare Program

If your leased laptop computer, smartphone, tablet and digital camera require repairs, you are entitled to loaned goods through our FlexiCare Program in some circumstances. We will endeavour to provide the Goods to you within 48 hours of your request to us (provided that delivery is to an Australian metropolitan area and your request is made during business hours). These goods are known as “Loaner Goods” and are discussed in clause 21.

Loaner Goods include goods which we may provide under the Loaner Goods program from time to time, including: laptop computer, smartphone, tablet device or digital camera. Loaner Goods are subject to availability.

Loaner Goods are meant to be a short-term solution only. If you return the Loaner Goods soon after we repair or replace your leased Goods, you won’t be charged anything. If you do not return the Loaner Goods, a late return fee will be charged monthly.

Call us on 1800 225 472 and we will make the arrangements. Courier delivery and collection will be at our cost. See the agreement for full details.

4. Who is responsible if the Goods are stolen, accidentally lost or accidentally damaged?

Except in the circumstances set out in clause 19.2 we retain and bear the risk of theft, accidental loss or accidental damage to the Goods anywhere in Australia or New Zealand or occurring anywhere in the world during a trip of not more than twenty eight (28) days’ duration. This feature is known as “FlexiCare Protect” and is set out in clause 19.

We also allow you to terminate the agreement early without payment of the Termination Amount in the event of unemployment, disablement, terminal illness or death. In the event of involuntary unemployment, you can also obtain a temporary release from Monthly Lease Payments for three (3) months. This feature is known as “FlexiCare Protect Platinum” and is set out in clause 20.

Please note – extra care is needed for portable Goods.

You should always keep the Goods in a safe place. Please do not leave the Goods unattended in a public place or in an unoccupied motor vehicle unless the vehicle is locked and the Goods are out of sight in a locked compartment permanently fixed to the vehicle. Your liability may increase if you fail to ensure that the Goods are kept safe and secure. See clause 19.2 for details.

5. How do I report an incident?

Just call us on 1800 225 472 and ask for an Incident Notification form. Our Customer Service Centre will help you through the process.

6. What happens at the end of my Agreement?

Because the agreement is a lease arrangement, you are not buying the Goods. This means you will need to discuss your options with us at least 3 months before your end of the Term. At this point you’ll need to think about what you would like to do with your leased goods:

- Return the goods and end your agreement
- Apply to upgrade/switch to new goods
- Double time

7. What are my end-of-lease options?

You can:

Return: You’re welcome to return the goods and end your agreement with us. The goods will need to be in the same condition as when you received them (subject to fair wear and tear) and returned at your expense.

When you return the Goods to us, you must remove all personal information from the Goods before returning them to us – we are not liable for any consequences arising from your failure to do this.

Early upgrade and save: If you'd like to update to new goods worth $500 or more before your agreement ends, let us know, as it could save you on lease payments.

Simply apply to take out a new agreement with new goods at any stage from your Switch-Point onwards (see the table below). If your application is successful, then return your existing goods. We'll then waive your remaining Monthly Lease Payments on your current agreement.

If the Term of this agreement is:	The Switch-Point is:
12 months	2 months before the Term ends
18 months	4 months before the Term ends
24 months	6 months before the Term ends
36 months	12 months before the Term ends
48 months	12 months before the Term ends
60 months	12 months before the Term ends

Double Time: If you are not ready to return the Goods at the end of your lease agreement, you can double the length of the term by paying the "Double Time Payment" – equivalent to one (1) Monthly Lease Payment.

8. What happens if I can no longer meet my payment obligations?

If you are having difficulties meeting your payment obligations, you can contact us on 1800 225 472 to discuss your options.

9. How to have Double Time at the end of the Term

After the Switch-Point and at the end of the Term, you can ask us to double the length of the Term in return for you paying the Double Time Payment. You must ask at least 30 days before the end of the Term.

If you request Double Time and we agree, you will not be required to make any further Monthly Lease Payments during the Double Time Period, but all other terms and conditions of the agreement will continue to apply. This means, for example, that you will be entitled to the FlexiCare Program you signed up to at the beginning of your agreement, including FlexiCare Protect and FlexiCare Loaner during the Double Time Period.

At the end of the Double Time Period, you can return the Goods.

Part A: Terms and Conditions

- (a) We own the Goods. You only have the right to use them during the Term. Despite anything else in this agreement, you have no right or obligation to purchase the Goods, either during the Term or during any extended term.
- (b) You must not:
 - (i) create or allow another interest in the Goods; or
 - (ii) dispose, or part with possession, of the Goods.
- (c) We may reissue a Product Schedule at any time to better describe, or correct any description of, the Goods or to correct any error in the Product Schedule.

2. Disclaimer of warranties

- (a) Upon delivery of the Goods you have to inspect them and satisfy yourself that they are in good operating order and condition.
- (b) You have to rely on your own judgment as to the:
 - (i) quality and condition of the Goods;
 - (ii) fitness and suitability of the Goods for any particular purpose; and
 - (iii) performance of services provided by third parties.
- (c) Under the ASIC Act, Australian Consumer Law, (see also 2(e) – 2(g) below), National Credit Code or a law to a similar effect, you may have the benefit of statutory warranties, guarantees, linked credit provider liability and other rights against us in respect of the Goods or any services. Apart from this, and to the fullest extent permitted by law:
 - (i) we don't give any warranties or guarantees in relation to the Goods or any services;
 - (ii) our liability in respect of the Goods or any services is limited to the repair or replacement of the Goods or the re-supply of the services or the cost of these; and
 - (iii) we're not liable for indirect or consequential damage, loss of income, loss of profit or interruption of business arising in relation to the Goods or any services. However, you will not be liable for losses which arise from fraud, negligence or wilful misconduct by us or any of our employees, contractors, agents or any receiver appointed by us.

- (d) No salesman or agent of the seller of the Goods is authorised to act as our agent to agree or negotiate or change any term of this agreement or to make any warranties or representations about it or the Goods. You may have rights against:
 - (i) the Supplier or seller if any of their warranties or representations are incorrect; or
 - (ii) us (in particular if we're a "linked credit provider or lessor" of the Supplier or seller under the National Credit Code or any other consumer laws).
 - (e) The Goods come with certain guarantees under Australian Consumer Law, which are free of charge and cannot be excluded.
 - (f) The Consumer Guarantees require that, in light of the nature and price of the goods, and all of the relevant circumstances, the goods must be free of defects, be fit for any purpose specified by the customer, do what they say they will, be safe, durable and of acceptable quality, comply with any description provided or demonstration model used. If there is a major failure of the Goods, you are entitled to a replacement or refund and to compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. If there is a minor failure of the Goods, you are entitled to have the Goods repaired or replaced.
 - (g) Consumer Guarantees do not have a set time limit, and generally last for a period of time that is reasonable in the circumstances. Consumer Guarantees may continue even after a manufacturer's warranty for the goods expires.
 - (h) In addition to your rights under the Australian Consumer Law, by entering this agreement, you will be provided with:
 - (i) FlexiCare Protect, which is our internal arrangement for theft, accidental loss or accidental damage of Goods; and
 - (ii) FlexiCare Protect Platinum, which is our internal arrangement for dealing with your death, disablement or unemployment.
- See Part C below for further information on FlexiCare.
- (i) You may also have rights under:
 - (i) a manufacturer's warranty; or
 - (ii) an extended warranty or customer care plan.

3. Payments

- (a) You have to pay us the Total Amount Payable.
- (b) You have to make the following payments under this agreement on the following dates:

Payment	When payable
First Lease Payment	Start Date
Monthly Lease Payment	Monthly Lease Payment Date
Upfront Payment (if any)	Received Date, before you take the Goods
Any other Fees or amounts payable under this agreement	In accordance with this agreement

- (c) If the Received Date is before the Start Date:
 - (i) the Term will commence on the Received Date (but the End Date set out on the Product Schedule won't change); and
 - (ii) you have to pay any Upfront Payment.
- (d) Monthly Lease Payments are payments in advance. If there is an Interim Lease Payment, the Interim Lease Payment portion of the First Lease Payment is a payment in arrears.
- (e) If a date on which a payment must be made doesn't fall on a Business Day, payment is due on the next Business Day.
- (f) Unless we otherwise agree in writing, all Lease Payments must be made by direct debit from your nominated bank account or credit card.
- (g) All Lease Payments, once paid, aren't refundable.
- (h) You, and each Guarantor, have to pay all amounts due under this agreement in full without set-off or counterclaim, and without any deduction in respect of taxes unless a law provides otherwise. This obligation is absolute, unconditional and continues, even if the Goods become unusable as a result of any act or omission of yours, or of any person to whom you have lent, given or otherwise passed custody or care of the Goods, including a family member, friend or courier. If you, or the Guarantor, believes that we owe you an amount in relation to the Goods or this agreement (eg if you or the Guarantor believes that we owe you money because the Goods are faulty) you or the Guarantor may raise that claim with us separately.
- (i) If you wish to dispute any amount payable, you believe that a payment was made in error, you believe that we haven't complied with this agreement or if you have a claim against us based on our conduct or the Goods, please follow our dispute resolution process as set out in the Credit Guide or the Direct Debit Request Service Agreement.
- (j) If there is any change to the amount of stamp duty or GST payable or if any other taxes or government charges become payable in respect of this agreement, we may adjust the Monthly Lease Payment or any other amount payable under this agreement accordingly.

4. Use and maintenance of the goods

You:

- (a) have to keep the Goods in good repair, condition and working order (normal fair wear and tear excepted) and must supply all parts and servicing required;
- (b) have to use, service and maintain the Goods in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions and recommendations; and
- (c) may not change the Goods without our written consent which will not be unreasonably withheld.

However, where this doesn't happen because of theft, accidental loss or accidental damage to the Goods, then we may take the risk of that under FlexiCare Protect. See Part C ("FlexiCare Program") for when we take the risk, and when you take the risk, of these matters.

5. Inspection

- (a) You have to give our agents reasonable access to inspect the Goods to confirm their existence, condition and proper maintenance. We'll give you 2 Business Days' notice before inspecting the Goods, unless we reasonably consider that the Goods will be in jeopardy without prompt action.
- (b) If you don't give us or our agents access, we or our agents may enter the premises where we believe the Goods are located to confirm the existence, condition and proper maintenance. We'll comply with all relevant laws in entering the premises.
- (c) If the National Credit Code applies to this agreement, we or our agents may not enter residential premises under this clause without the written consent of the occupier or court authorisation.

6. Fees

You have to pay us any Fees set out in the Fee Table.

7. Early termination option

- (a) You may end this agreement early by paying to us the Termination Amount and returning the Goods in accordance with clause 9. If you pay the Termination Amount and return the Goods in accordance with clause 9, you may receive a refund under clause 9(f).
- (b) Until you do both of the things outlined in clause 7(a), you have to continue to make payments under this agreement when due.
- (c) If the National Credit Code applies to this agreement, you may end this agreement before the Goods are provided to you by giving us written notice. If you do this, you don't have to pay a Termination Amount but you have to immediately pay any Fees which were incurred before you ended this agreement.

8. Termination

- (a) If you Default we may end this agreement by giving you a termination notice. If we give you a termination notice, you have to immediately:
 - (i) pay us the Termination Amount; and
 - (ii) return the Goods in accordance with clause 9.
- (b) If you breach any essential term of this agreement, we're entitled at law to terminate this agreement. Allowing a Default to occur is a breach of an essential term.
- (c) If the National Credit Code applies to this agreement, we'll give you 30 days' notice before giving you a termination notice under this clause or otherwise enforcing this agreement (unless the law provides that this isn't required, including where we have made reasonable attempts to locate you, but without success). We will endeavour to give you not less than 30 days notice before taking enforcement action or demanding repayment unless we determine that it is important for us to take action more promptly. In making that decision, we will act reasonably, but our decision once made is final and binding on you.
- (d) Unless we determine that it is important for us to take action more promptly, we will endeavour to give the Guarantor not less than 5 Business Days notice:
 - (i) if you are 30 days behind your agreed repayment schedule; and
 - (ii) of the commencement of legal proceedings against you or the appointment of a receiver.

9. Return of the goods

- (a) You have to return the Goods to us:
 - (i) at the end of the Term; or
 - (ii) if you have chosen Double Time, at the end of Double Time Period; or
 - (iii) earlier if required under clause 8.

You may also choose to return the Goods to us earlier in accordance with clause 7 or clause 11.
- (b) If you have to return the Goods to us under this agreement for any reason or we give you prior notice that we'll repossess Goods under this agreement, you have to:
 - (i) return the Goods to us at your expense to an address nominated by us;
 - (ii) return any software specified on the Product Schedule, and all CDs, DVDs, accessories and manuals provided with the Goods;
 - (iii) except where Goods are returned for replacement or repair — ensure the Goods and anything else returned with them are in as good condition as they were delivered to you (subject to normal fair wear and tear).
- (c) Except where Goods are returned for replacement or repair, you have to remove any personal data and software from the Goods if the software was not installed on the Goods on the Received Date or isn't specified on the Product Schedule. If you don't do this, we're not liable for:

- (i) any consequences arising from your failure to remove it;
 - (ii) any data that is lost, corrupted or compromised if we remove it,
- except to the extent arising from our fraudulent or grossly negligent handling or disposal of it.
- (d) If you don't return any Goods to us in accordance with the condition required by this clause, then you have to:
 - (i) pay us the difference between the Fair Market Value of the Goods as returned to us and the Fair Market Value as they should have been returned to us; and
 - (ii) pay us, calculated at our standard rates (as notified to you at the time), for our services required to remove any personal data or software in accordance with this clause.
 - (e) If you do not return the Goods to us when required by this agreement, then the lease under this agreement will continue on a month to month basis until the Goods are returned to us. You have to pay the Monthly Lease Payment during this period.
 - (f) If this agreement is terminated under clause 7 or 8 you have to pay the Termination Amount and return the Goods in accordance with clause 9. If you do both of these things, then we'll refund to you a portion of the Termination Amount equal to our reasonable estimation of the Fair Market Value of the Goods at that time and in their condition as returned (less a reasonable estimate of costs associated with holding and sale).

10. Repossession of goods

- (a) If you don't return the Goods when you are required to do so under this agreement, we or our agents may take all necessary steps to enter any premises where we believe the Goods may be located and repossess the Goods. If the National Credit Code applies to this agreement, we or our agents may not enter residential premises under this clause without the written consent of the occupier or court authorisation.
- (b) If the National Credit Code applies to this agreement, we'll give you 30 days' notice before exercising our rights under this clause unless the law provides that this isn't required, including where we have made reasonable attempts to locate you, but without success.
- (c) Subject to complying with any applicable law, we may sell any repossessed Goods at any time. We'll pay any excess sales proceeds to you if required under the PPSA or any other law.
- (d) If we haven't ended this agreement, you may collect the Goods from us only if you have paid all payments under this agreement and the Term has not ended or Double Time has not ended.

11. Upgrade and early termination

- (a) At or after the switch point noted below ("Switch-Point"), you are eligible for early termination of this agreement if you upgrade to new goods under a new lease agreement with us and return the existing Goods:
